

Inaugural Meeting of the International Health Data Linkage Consortium

Agenda

10am-5pm, December 4th & 5th 2008

Day 1

9-10am

Registration, Tea & Coffee

10am

1. Official Welcome
Peter Knight

10.15am

2. Objectives of the inaugural meeting
Professor D'Arcy Holman

10.45am

3. Purpose of the International Health Data Linkage Consortium
Emma Fuller

11.30am

4. Infrastructure, governance and funding of data linkage centres
Dr Kim McGrail

12pm

Lunch

1pm

5. Managing Complexities: Directions for the future
Professor Leslie Roos

1.30pm

6. Comparative studies across centres using data linkage
Professor Michael Goldacre

2.00pm

7. National Linkage of UK data
Peter Knight

2.30pm

8. NCRIS: National Linkage in Australia
Dr Merran Smith

3pm

Afternoon Tea

3.30pm

9. Spatial Health – an Australian focus and request for international interest
Professor James Semmens

3.40pm

10. Open access journal specific to data linkage studies
Professor Louisa Jorm

3.50pm

11. Involvement of the World Health Organisation with the IHDLC
Emma Fuller

4.00pm

12. International research outputs of linked data studies
Emma Fuller

4.30pm

13. Possible content of consensus statement
Professor D'Arcy Holman

5pm Day 1 Close

7.30pm Meeting Dinner

Day 2

Workshops

10am

1. Internationally comparative data linkage studies – ability to produce a compendium of measurements based on linkage of health data across the UK, Canada and Australia.
All IHDLC participants

12pm

Lunch

1pm

2. Progress report on consensus statement
Professor D'Arcy Holman

1.30pm

3. International collation and sharing of information on data standards, quality & definitions.
Dr Hude Quan

3.30pm
Afternoon Tea & Networking

5.00pm
Day 2 Close